

JOKES

I just got off the phone with a friend living in Northern Wisconsin.

He said that since early this morning the snow has been nearly waist high and is still falling.

The temperature is dropping way below zero and the north wind is increasing to near gale force.

His wife has done nothing but look through the kitchen window and just stare.

He says that if it gets much worse, he may have to let her in.

Ole won a fishing boat in a raffle drawing in a small upstate Minnesota town.

He brought it home and Lena looks at him and says, "Vot da heck you gonna do vit dat. Dere ain't no water deep enough ta float a boat widin 50 miles uv here."

Ole says, "I vun it and I'ma gonna keep it."

Sven came over to visit several days later. He sees Lena and asks where Ole is.

She says, "He's out dere in his fishin boat," pointing to the field behind the house.

Sven heads out behind the house and sees his brother sitting in a fishing boat with a fishing rod in his hand down in the middle of a big field.

He yells out to him, "Vot da heck are you doing out dere?"

Ole replies, "I'ma fishin'. Vot da heck duz it look like I'ma doing?"

Sven yells back, "It'sa people lika you that give people from Norway a bad name; make everybody tink we are stoopid. If I cud svim, I'd come out dere and kick your butt."

A trip to the store

There was a bit of confusion at the Sporting goods store this morning.

When I was ready to pay for my purchases of gun powder and bullets, the cashier said, "Strip down, facing me."

Making a mental note to complain to the NRA about the gun registry people running amok, I did just as she had instructed.

When the hysterical shrieking and alarms finally subsided, I found out that she was referring to my credit card.

I have been asked to shop elsewhere in the future.

They need to make their instructions to us seniors a little clearer

PRESIDENT'S PARTY

The President's Party this year will be a Latin dancing extravaganza, with fun lessons, spicy food and hot dancing. The location is the Arthur Murray Dance Center at San Marco Plaza, 8215 Nature's Way, Lakewood Ranch and it will be held on Saturday 19th January 2013. We have a great line up, with the evening kicking off at 6pm with BYOB drinks to "encourage" you onto the dance floor. We have arranged to have fresh Latin / Mexican food, cooked to order, available right outside the studio. Just 20 paces away is the wonderful Wine Styles, where the owner, Carmen, has offered a 10% discount on any wine bought by members that evening.

At 6.45pm, we'll have a short demonstration of Salsa and Cha Cha from Dean, our instructor on the evening, and your new President's wife, Diane, to further get you in the mood. The first lesson will be on the Cha Cha at 7pm for 30 minutes, then a break to get our breath back and eat/drink some more. At 7.45pm, we'll have a Salsa lesson, then dance away the rest of the evening, with teachers on hand to assist. There will also be non-Latin music for dancing as well .

Please support this party, as it is going to be terrific fun, with everybody having such a laugh in the lessons, as Dean is a fantastic British teacher. The cost for the whole evening (apart from your drinks but including food and lessons), will be $15 per member, or $20 per non-member.

Letter from President Sue Ford

Christmas and the SBC Christmas Party are almost upon us. If you haven't already put your name down for the Christmas Party, please do so promptly as we're filling up fast. Do note that if you choose the prime rib from the menu options, your order will likely come as either medium or well. As you can readily understand, with so many meals being served at once, the kitchen at Heritage Oaks cannot provide 'rare', 'medium', or 'well' on demand.

November Cruise.

Wow! what a time we have had on our Carnival Exotic Eastern Caribbean Cruise. You know when something is so good that you wish all your friends and loved ones were with you to have share your experiences.....that's how I felt about the cruise. I wanted you all with us.

The fun began the moment we boarded the West Florida Bus Company which picked us up. We booked their very comfortable 25-seat bus to take us to Miami; and all 15 travelers were ready and waiting before the allotted time outside McDonalds at the intersection of Bee Ridge Rd and Cattlemen Rd. The atmosphere was wonderful with everyone so eagerly looking forward to the cruise.

The 4-hour drive was both comfortable and enjoyable. Too, as is typical of any SBC social venture, the conversation flowed constantly between members. We were dropped right at the door of our check-in station at the port; and within 10 painless minutes we were all very efficiently checked-in and very soon were walking aboard the Carnival Liberty where cocktails and party music welcomed us to our 7-day adventure. Between eating, drinking, touring islands, playing the slots, sun bathing, snorkeling, buying art and enjoying nightly dining with the very interesting and lively company of our diverse fellow members, our 7 days just flew. As this is my last newsletter as President, I leave you in the hands of our incoming President, Steve Adams. I feel confident we have a great year ahead of us. Happy holidays to all and I look forward to seeing you on December 15 at the SBC Christmas Party.

Sue Ford

Christmas Party—December 15th

The menu, see Page 6, is mouth-watering and fabulously expensive, but to you 'it is very reasonable'.

Heritage Oaks are rewarding us well for our 4 years of loyalty. There will be no increase in cost: the price has been $40 members & $50 non-members for the last 3 years running. Kath Curtin, Shona Burtner and I have had such much fun and enjoyment in organizing and working with the management team of Heritage Oaks that we now look upon them as friends. This year is going to be as memorable as all our other Christmas parties, so be sure to put the date in your calendar.

SANDRA'S RECIPE OF THE MONTH

I wish you all a very Happy Holiday season. It's hard to think how fast this past year went

This 'recipe' is not my own work, but one I had from years ago, just thought it is good for a giggle again!

Best Rum Cake Ever

Before you start, sample the rum to check for quality. Good isn't it? Now go ahead and select a large mixing bowl, measuring cup, etc. Check the rum again, it must be just right. To be sure the rum is of the highest quality, pour one level cup into a glass and drink it as fast as you can. Repeat. With an electric mixer beat one cup of butter in a large fluffy bowl. Add one teaspoon of thugar and beat again. Meanwhile, check that the rum is of the highest quality. Try another cup. Open second quart if necessary. Add two large eggs, two cups fried druit and beat till high. If druit gets stuck in beaters just pry it loose with a drowscriver. Sample the rum again, checking for tonscisticity. Next, sift three cups of pepper or salt (it doesn't really matter). Sample the rum again. Sift 1/2 pint lemon juice. Fold in chopped butter and strained nuts. Add one babblespoon of brown thugar or whatever colour you can fine. Wix mell. Grease oven and turn pan to 350 gredes. Now pour the whole mess into the coven and bake. Check the rum again and go to bed

(I do have a real rum cake recipe if anyone is interested!!! 'Recipe' from Sandra Cherry, Union Jack food columnist and can be reached at Yourcuppateal@yahoo.com)

Email Distribution of BritClub News

Beginning with the January 2013 issue, the SBC monthly newsletter will be distributed to the membership by email. The Board made this decision in its September meeting primarily because electronic distribution will mean considerable savings to the Club in postage and printing costs, which, in turn will make additional funds available for other Club needs and activities. An added advantage of email distribution is that members will receive newsletters featuring photos and artwork in full color. The format will change to make it easier for you to print a page as and when required.

Electronic distribution has been carried out in parallel to the printed version for a couple of months. So far the response has been positive.

However, there have been about 6 'undelivered' messages returned to me. These may be because you have changed your provider. If you have not had email contact from the Club in the last 2 months, please let me know your current address.
